

Link a prospective student to UMass Amherst
APPLICATION DEADLINE: JANUARY 15TH 2010

MISSION: Assist in identifying and encouraging in-and out-of-state academically talented students to apply.

Word is out. UMass Amherst is the place to be for an academically challenging experience with a broad spectrum of cultural, social, and extracurricular activities and opportunities.

UMass Amherst On-line Application:

https://webapp.spire.umass.edu/admissions/cgi-bin/app/ugapp_display.pl

The Common Application – For Undergraduate College Admission:

<https://www.commonapp.org/CommonApp/default.aspx>

Although your personal contact and encouragement may influence qualified students to apply to the University, your recommendation will not ensure nor guarantee admission.

The average accepted student profile for Fall 2009:

- ❖ Average High School Grade Point Average (GPA) 3.57
- ❖ Average class rank in the 20th percentile
- ❖ Average SAT score 1171 [math and critical reasoning scores combined]

Students are reviewed for admission to the Commonwealth Honors College with the UMass Amherst application.

Suggested sources to locate potential UMass Amherst students:

- ❖ Check the local National Honor/Junior Honor Society announcement in your local newspaper.
- ❖ Examine the student information section of the local newspaper to find students involved in community service or school projects.
- ❖ Remember community college honor societies and programs.
- ❖ Talk to adults involved in student leadership organizations: 4-H, Boy and Girl Scouts, Future Farmers of America, JROTC, etc.

Admissions Process Questions? Send them to advocate@admissions.umass.edu. Check out the UMass Amherst Admissions web site: www.umass.edu/admissions.

Tell us about your UMass Amherst advocacy at sgf@admin.umass.edu.

Thank you for building a stronger UMass Amherst