

Abbreviated Vita – Bob Wolff

Academic Appointments:

University of Massachusetts 1971-1992 [Philosophy Department] 1992-Present [Afro-American Studies Department]

∞ Current Positions:

Graduate Program Director, Afro-American Studies doctoral program

Program for Undergraduate Mentoring and Achievement [PUMA], Director

Columbia University 1964-1971

University of Chicago 1961-1964

Harvard 1958-1961

Visiting Appointments:

Wellesley College

Rutgers University

Brandeis University

Selected Publications:

Kant's Theory of Mental Activity 1962

A Critique of Pure Tolerance [with Herbert Marcuse and Baqrrington Moore, Jr.] 1965

The Poverty of Liberalism, 1968

The Ideal of the University, 1969

In Defense of Anarchism, 1970,

The Autonomy of Reason, 1974

About Philosophy, 1976 [9th edition, 2005]

Understanding Marx 1985

Moneybags Must Be So Lucky, 1988

Autobiography of an Ex-White Man, 2005

Other Interests:

University Scholarships for South African Students, Founder [1990] and Executive Director [website: www.ussas.com]