First Career Fields of 2014 UMass Amherst Graduates

4,021 graduating seniors had post-graduation plans; 2,521 (or 62.7%) anticipated having full-time paid employment.

At the time of graduation, 1,020 graduating seniors reported having accepted a full-time job.

991 graduating seniors told us which job they accepted and 917 clearly defined the career field for their new job.

(The information below reflects those 917 seniors' career fields. Data from the OIR & OAPA 2014 Graduating Senior Survey.)

Accounting & Finance: Ernst & Young, Pricewaterhouse Coopers, Liberty Mutual, Fidelity Investments

Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics: Raytheon, EMC2, IBM, Cisco Systems, Google

Hospitality & Tourism: Marriott International, Kimpton Hotels, MGM Resorts International, Disney

Marketing, Sales, & Retail: Macy's, TJX Companies, EverQuote, Target

Agriculture, Food, Natural Resources, & Environment: CSG, Gorton's Seafood, Conservation Services Group, NE Forestry Foundation

Education & Training: Teach for America, Match Education, Boston Public Schools, City Year

Human Services: New England Center for Children, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Family Services Greater Boston, Senior Living Residences

Health Services: Baystate Health, Boston Children's Hospital, Sanofi Genzyme, AbbVie

Government & Public Administration: Office of the Comptroller of Currency, Peace Corps, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, MA Department of Transportation

Manufacturing: Sherwin-Williams, Aspen Tech, Eastman Chemical, Newell Rubbermaid

Business Management & Administration: Aspen Square Management, Mercer Consulting, ADP, ALKU Technologies

Transportation, Distribution, & Logistics: Enterprise, C&S Wholesale Grocers, Ferguson Enterprise, Saint Gobain

Arts, A/V Technology, & Communications: New England Public Radio, ESPN, Discovery Communications Channel, Boston Globe

Prepared by Career Services and SACL Assessment