Newman Mission Statement

"cor ad cor loquitur" The Newman Catholic Center includes the students, faculty and staff at the University of Massachusetts and extended community. Empowered by the Spirit and inspired by John Henry Newman's motto: "Heart speaks to Heart" we explore, believe and reach out inclusively to make Jesus Christ present to all who share their journey with us.

Newman Vision Statement

The Newman Catholic Center at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst provides a safe, comfortable, and caring community in which students can grow spiritually, form new relationships, and deepen the rich traditions of their Catholic Faith. As Blessed John Henry Cardinal Newman desired, we put the Catholic faith to work in conjunction with students' secular education. We offer encouragement in worship and study, aid in the development of leadership skills, and facilitate in building a faith community that provide lasting memories. Through the sharing of meals and prayers that sustain the body, mind and spirit, we create a "home away from home" environment that helps to break social barriers while supporting each other in the growth and understanding of the faith. We act as models to those around us through our commitment to God, Church and Community.

Let Us Draw Near

A Study of the Letter to the Hebrews

Who is Christ Jesus? What has he done for us? How does his death affect our lives? What destiny do we share because of him? What power is ours due to his presence among us? These are some of the questions raised and answered by the author of one of the most meaningful and best loved works in the New Testament. Join us on Tuesdays beginning February 17th and throughout the Lenten season, as we examine a text that uniquely presents Jesus as the perfect priest who offers for us a perfect sacrifice.

When: Tuesday Evening, 7 to 8:30pm
 Where: The Quigley Room, Newman Center
 472 North Pleasant Street
 Amherst MA
 Facilitator: Reverend. Michael J. Twohig, MDiv / MEd
 Associate Director, Newman Apostolate, Amherst MA
 Tools: A Bible, A Journal and an Open Mind

Therefore, brothers and sisters, since through the blood of Jesus we have confidence of entrance into the sanctuary by the new and living way he opened for us..., and since we have "a great priest over the house of God," let us draw near with a sincere heart and in absolute trust...

St. Francis' Environmental Corner

Ecology and Spirituality: A Call to Action

"The earth will not continue to offer its harvest, except with faithful stewardship. We cannot say we love the land and then take steps to destroy it for use by future generations."

— Pope John Paul II

"We are all responsible for the protection and care of the environment. This responsibility knows no boundaries. In accordance with the principle of subsidiarity it is important for everyone to be committed at his or her proper level, working to overcome the prevalence of particular interests."

— Pope Benedict XVI,

(Message for the Celebration of the World Day of Peace, January 1, 2010)

We hear Pope Francis called the Environmental Pope and feel good about the Church's focus on caring for creation, but this is not a new direction for the Catholic Church. Both Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI have been advocating for an environmental sustainable world for a long time.

FAITH IN ACTION:

Incorporating the Gospel Message Into our Everyday Lives

The world can be a pretty chaotic place. There's war and violence of every sort. There are natural and man-made disasters, famine, and disease. How is a person supposed to have any hope, especially when our personal lives can be as chaotic as the world outside? Friends grow apart. There's conflict among families and illness, loss, and disappointment.

However, today's readings remind us though that healing and compassion are two of the hallmarks of Jesus's work and presence. Yes, there is the chaos in the world. We see the same chaos in the Gospel. But, Jesus puts it all in order. Into the midst of evil, sickness, pain, confusion, trouble, and sadness comes Jesus. And with him comes wholeness, health, calm, and healing. The other thing we should take note of is that in spite of a very long "to-do" list, Jesus prays. Jesus goes to the Father with his need, and his gratitude, and his love, and gains the strength to do what must be done.

Jesus created much excitement in His day through His preaching, teaching, and healing. Today, the Church communicates that same wonder and grace by those active in priesthood, religious life, and lay ministries. If you think God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Fr. Gary Dailey at 413 452-0816 or email: g.dailey@diospringfield.org www.myvocation.com

Prayer of Intercession: For all those who minister to the sick, that they may be strengthened by the power of prayer, we pray...

Many Thanks from our Seminarists...

"Thank you for the warm Christmas wishes and for your support to the seminarists! Please continue to keep me and my brother seminarists in your prayers as we begin a new semester!" - Bernardo

"Thank you so much for your kindness and generosity to me this Christmas season. Your gift to me means a lot and has helped me to realize what wonderful works God does in His Church through people in parishes like yours. Knowing that there are people and parishes out there supporting and praying for me means a tremendous amount as I continue in my vocation journey. Please know of my prayers for your community as well and may this new year bring all of you God's grace and blessings." - Matthew

"Thank you very much for your generous gift. Your kindness is greatly appreciated. May God Bless you all!" - Thomas

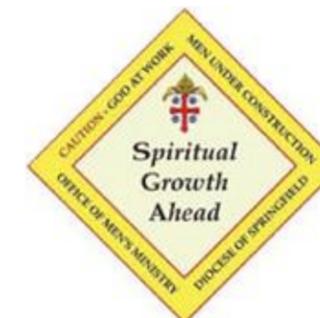

Thank you to all the members of the Hospitality and Fellowship Subcommittee, the NSA, and all those who generously contributed to the reception for Bishop Rozanski last Sunday. Please know that your time and efforts were most appreciated, and it was a perfect complement to the beautiful liturgy in honor of the Bishop's visit.— Frank and the Newman Council
