Newman Mission Statement

"cor ad cor loquitur" The Newman Catholic Center includes the students, faculty and staff at the University of Massachusetts and extended community. Empowered by the Spirit and inspired by .John Henry Newman's motto: "Heart speaks to Heart" we explore, believe and reach out inclusively to make Jesus Christ present to all who share their journey with us.

Newman Vision Statement

The Newman Catholic Center at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst provides a safe, comfortable, and caring community in which students can grow spiritually, form new relationships, and deepen the rich traditions of their Catholic Faith. As Blessed John Henry Cardinal Newman desired, we put the Catholic faith to work in conjunction with students' secular education. We offer encouragement in worship and study, aid in the development of leadership skills, and facilitate in building a faith community that provide lasting memories. Through the sharing of meals and prayers that sustain the body, mind and spirit, we create a "home away from home" environment that helps to break social barriers while supporting each other in the growth and understanding of the faith. We act as models to those around us through our commitment to God, Church and Community.

FAITH IN ACTION:

Incorporating the Gospel Message Into our Everyday Lives

Imagine this might happen during the same few days. You begin with your friends being closer to you than ever before. Then something terrible happens to you. Your friends, just when you need them the most, turn their backs on you. In today's readings, Jesus goes suddenly from being famous to being the guy no one wants to be seen with. Jesus enters Jerusalem like a rock star. Crowds come to cheer his arrival. One woman even anoints Jesus with expensive oil to honor him. He celebrates with his closest friends, and during the meal Jesus tells them one of them will soon turn him over to the authorities. The list of the disciples' failures only grows from here—they fall asleep when they are supposed to be keeping watch for him, they abandon and deny him as he is being tortured and killed. "He emptied himself," the reading from Philipians says (2:7). Jesus surrenders entirely to being human. He experiences the worst of human cruelty—physical harm to the point of death and the heart-break of being betrayed and given up on by his friends.

Blessed are those who come in the Name of the LORD. Blessed are they who live their lives in the Name of the LORD! If you feel God is giving you the blessing of a call to a Church vocation, call Fr. Gary Dailey at 413 452-0816 or email: g.dailey@diospringfield.org www.myvocation.com

St. Francis' Environmental Corner
Ecology and Spirituality: A Call to Action

In a recent talk Ghanaian Cardinal Peter Turkson, president of the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, outlined four themes of the pope's teachings on integral ecology:

- The call to be protectors is integral and all-embracing
- Care for creation and humanity are virtues in their own right
- We will – we must – care for what we cherish and revere
- A need for dialogue and “a new global solidarity,” where all have a part to play

“We are called to protect and care for both creation and the human person,” he said in describing the first principle. “These concepts are reciprocal and, together, they make for authentic and sustainable human development.”
