Questions

1) From working behind the counter to the weekly all-staff meetings, CD&C can be a stressful environment from time to time. What are some of the ways you cope with stress?

2) What are three characteristics that you posses that would make you an asset to this cooperative?

3) What past activities have you been involved in that would be beneficial to the running of our business?

4) What are you passionate about and how does this passion influence the way you work?

*please use the backside of this application to design an advertisement for CD&C OR attach your own.