Limited Submission Announcement

The Greenwall Foundation Faculty Scholars Program in Bioethics

Overview:

The Greenwall Faculty Scholars Program in Bioethics is a career development award to enable junior faculty members to carry out innovative bioethics research. It supports research that goes beyond current work in bioethics to help resolve pressing ethical issues in clinical care, biomedical research, and public policy, and creates a community that enhances future bioethics research by Scholars and Alumni/ae.

Eligibility:

- Applicants must be junior faculty members at a university or non-profit research institute that has tax-exempt status in the United States.
- Applicants must hold a faculty appointment that allows at least 50 percent of their effort to perform research (often this is a faculty position with at least a 60 percent appointment in a tenure-track position or its equivalent).
- Priority will be given to applicants who have not yet been considered for tenure or an equivalent promotion; whose research will have an impact on public policy, biomedical research, or clinical practice; and who will make important contributions to the field of bioethics over their careers.

- The Greenwall Foundation particularly welcomes applicants from backgrounds that are under-represented in bioethics and academia.

Award Background:

- Award Amount: 50% of salary support for 3 years
- Number of Awards: approximately 3
- Number of UMass Amherst Nominees: up to 2
- Directory of Past Awardees - We strongly recommend reviewing past awards to determine competitiveness.
