Footnotes:
1. Includes approximately $8M for undergraduate instructional support, $3.3M for general education and writing program support, $0.7M for Five College agreements $6.6M for Amherst 250, $0.5M for GEO health fee increases, $0.5M for faculty and librarian promotions, $0.4M for Learning Commons operating costs, $0.25M for instructional technology maintenance and upgrades, $0.5M for diversity plan, and $2M for faculty start-up.
2. The Undergraduate Affairs/Academic Support budget includes central allocations not yet disbursed to schools and colleges for Amherst 250.
3. Costs for the First Year Experience program were shifted from the Housing budget to the General Operations budget in FY08 to enable Housing to take on additional debt to fund the installation of sprinklers in dormitories. The First Year Experience program contains programmatic elements normally funded by the General Operations budget.
4. Funds were added following completion of the Isenberg Addition and the new Engineering Building to cover increased maintenance costs. These funds are carried in the Physical Plant budget.
5. The campus incurred new operating and maintenance costs in FY08 when the new studio arts building and renovated Skinner Hall opened. These funds are carried in the Physical Plant budget.
6. The campus will incur new operating and maintenance costs when the Integrated Science Building opens. These funds will be carried in the Physical Plant budget.
7. Athletics received additional funds in FY09 to cover inflationary travel costs increases, upgrades to its intercollegiate programs, and inflationary scholarship support.
