

Post-Commencement Receptions

Immediately following Commencement, each school, college, and degree-granting program will hold a reception for its graduates and their families and guests in a tent outside the stadium. The tent locations are shown here. (For a list of which majors are included in each school and college, see page 13.)

