Connections in Color
A Group Where Students of Color Can Find Their UMass Voice

Supportive space for students of color to come together, talk and learn while engaging in discussions regarding the academic & social pressures of being a student of color at UMass. We hope to lead discussions on mental health and wellness, improving self-esteem and confidence, building and improving relationships, and much more!

This is a drop-in group; no RSVP needed to join.

Group meetings are held every Thursday
4:00-5:30PM • Wilder Hall 102 • Confidential

The following dates meet at different locations:
► February 23 – Guinness Student Center, Engineering Dept., Marcus Hall
► March 9 – Dukes Room, Student Union
► April 6 – TBA

Dr. Linda Scott, CCPH & Michelle Youngblood, M.Ed., CMASS with special guest facilitators from the UMass Community
