Got questions?
Get answers!

The Department of Economics is sponsoring a series of FAQ Friday info sessions to help undergrads get the answers they need. Join Economics Academic Advisor Lori Sadler as she shares the secrets of the universe (well, okay, maybe just the university) that will help you succeed.

► Wrestle SPIRE to the ground and make it give up its secrets.
► Avoid the enrollment holds that can ruin your life (or at least your semester).
► Learn how to decipher your ARR.
► What?! You don’t know what your ARR is?! Find out what it is and how it can help you.
► Creative solutions when you’re behind on credits.
► How to complete your degree in three years.
► Where to begin with study abroad.
► And much, much more!

Register for any FAQ Friday via the Economics Advising website (click “Make an Advising Appointment” button to get to event registration):

www.umass.edu/economics/undergraduate/advising

(Crotty Hall is located at 412 North Pleasant Street in Amherst. See Economics advising website for link to map & bus information.)

Fridays 1:30 - 2:20 and 2:30 - 3:20
Crotty Hall, rm 209 or 220
Space is limited, so advance registration is highly recommended.

Email Lori Sadler at sadler@econs.umass.edu if you have questions.