DOCTORAL STUDENTS SCHEDULING DISSERTATION DEFENSES (Form D-8) MUST SUBMIT THIS FORM FOUR (4) WEEKS BEFORE THE ORAL DEFENSE DATE.

GRADUATE SCHOOL FELLOWSHIPS FOR CURRENTLY ENROLLED STUDENTS

Nominations for the Graduate School Fellowship are now being solicited by the Graduate School. The purpose of this Fellowship is to promote the recruitment and retention of academically excellent students. PREFERENCE IS GIVEN TO INCOMING DOCTORAL STUDENTS although Master's and CAGS students may also apply. Incoming students are defined as students new to UMASS as of Fall, 2008.

Current students will ONLY be considered if any awards to incoming students are declined. A maximum of six students may be nominated from the School of Education and 3 from School Psychology ((incoming and current combined).

Although the actual amount of the stipend has not been established, last year it ranged from $10,000 to $15,000. Award includes a waiver of tuition and payment of the Curriculum Fee and the mandatory health fee. Students are allowed to supplement the Fellowship stipends with other sources of funding.

CURRENT graduate students need to submit the following:

- Fellowship nomination form (to be completed by Linda Guthrie)
- Personal statement by the student (Statement & C.V. not to exceed 3 pages, in 12 pt. font)

- CV (include papers delivered, publications, performances, exhibits, service to the University/community)
- Graduate Program Director Recommendation Letter (Linda Griffin will write a recommendation for those she nominates)
- 2 Faculty Recommendation Letters (one must be from chair/advisor) (one of whom is the student's major advisor/chairperson)
- Unofficial copy of student's latest graduate transcript (available from SPIRE)

Recommendation forms are available from Linda Guthrie in 123 Furcolo, who will be serving as the liaison between students and Linda Griffin, Graduate Program Director for the School of Education.

CRITERIA used by the committee to rank applications are listed in order of importance as follows (in descending order):

- Recommendation from Linda Griffin, Graduate Program Director
- Two letters of recommendation from faculty
- Curriculum Vitae
- Personal Statement
- Additional information (papers delivered at conferences, publications, honors, exhibits, etc)
- Unofficial Transcript

You can also submit your electronic proposal at the web site: www.nameorg.org. Proposals to present in New Orleans are due: MARCH 31, 2008.

The conference theme is Beyond Celebrating Diversity: ReACTivating the Equity and Social Justice Roots of Multicultural Education.

ASSOCIATION FOR TEACHER EDUCATORS

The 2008 Summer Conference of the Association of Teacher Educators will be held in Washington, D.C. at the Hyatt Regency Washington on Capitol Hill from August 2 to 6, 2008. The theme selected by President Paul Paese is The Global Imperative: Educating and Assessing the Whole Child, Teachers, and Community.

Deadline for submitting proposals has been extended to April 4, 2008.

The 2008 Summer Conference Planning Committee seeks to attract all professionals involved in the education of the whole child. We seek proposals that broaden the context for professional development of educators who are responsible for preparing our future citizens to function and live well in a global community. We have identified four strands that we believe are relevant to this global imperative: (1) Multiple Literacies/Integrated Learning; (2) Fitness and Health; (3) Culture and Community; (4) Policy and Advocacy. The planning committee recognizes the strands are interrelated; proposals may address more than one strand.

The 2008 Summer Conference Planning Committee encourages formats that use multiple presenters, undergraduate and graduate students, classroom teachers, teacher educators at all levels, and policy makers.

Due Dates and Submission:

Proposals must be e-mailed by April 4, 2008 to David Ritchey, ATE Executive Director, as two Word documents (cover page and description of presentation). Send proposals to dritchey@ate1.org. An email confirmation that your proposal has been received will be sent within two days. If you don't receive such confirmation, please contact ATE's office at (703) 331-0911.
