Recent Publications

Upcoming Conference Presentations

John C. Carey, SD, will be presenting, "A Global Perspective on Counseling in Schools: Policy, Research and Practice" at the Third International Conference on Counseling, Psychotherapy and Wellness on January 5, 2016 at Christ University, in Bangalore, India.

Maria José Botelho, TECS, will be participating in the upcoming National Council for Teachers of English Assembly for Research (NCTEAR) Midwinter Conference at Eastern Michigan University as presenter, discussant, and conference eye. The conference theme is "Making Research Persuasive: The Value, Purpose, and Methodology of Our Work." She will be presenting, "Reading Community in Children’s Literature: Analyzing Ethnographic Data Aloud," and will also be responding to Mariana Souto-Manning’s panel on multicultural and multilingual study in early childhood classrooms with Judith Green, University of California, Santa Barbara. Lastly, she will be writing her last NCTEAR newsletter as she completes her three-year membership on the NCTEAR Executive Board and its newsletter editor. The conference is scheduled for February 5-7, 2016 in Ypsilanti, Michigan, and the newsletter will be published in late February 2016.

Previous Conference Presentations

John J. McCarthy, Vice-Provost for Graduate Education and Dean of the Graduate School, announced that Kathryn Accurso, EdD student, TECS, was awarded a Graduate School Dissertation Research Grant. This award is to assist students in the completion of their dissertation as well as to provide recognition of their research and accomplishments to date.

If you would like to submit information to be included in the next College of Education Spotlight on Research, please email educore@educ.umass.edu no later than Wednesday January 6, 2016.