Previous Conference Presentations

- Kathryn McDermott, EPRA, David Gamson, Pennsylvania State University, and Douglas Reed, Georgetown University, organized a conference at the Russell Sage Foundation in New York City on December 5, 2014. The conference was funded by Russell Sage and featured nine papers on the past and future of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, the U.S. federal government’s main K-12 education program. The conference will lead to a special issue of RSF: The Russell Sage Foundation Journal of Social Science, entitled “The Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) at 50 and Beyond,” to be published later this year, marking the Act’s fiftieth anniversary. These three organizers will also be writing an overview of ESEA for the special issue.

- John Carey, SD, and Linda Webb, Florida State University, presented, “Student Success Skills: Results of a Randomized Controlled Trial of an Elementary School Counseling Curriculum” at the International Congress for School Effectiveness and Improvement (ICSEI) Conference in Cincinnati, Ohio January 3-6th, 2015
