FORMATION OF DISSERTATION COMMITTEE

KATHY SISNEROS  Proposed Dissertation Title: "The Forgotten Voices Behind Designated Diversity Initiatives: Perspectives from Students of Color Living in a Multicultural Residential Community." Statement of the Problem: Colleges and universities have become increasingly diverse since Brown v. Board of Education requiring that institutions figure out how to manage a more racially diverse student body. Unfortunately, many predominantly White institutions (PWIs) continue to fall short in attending to the specific needs for students of color to feel included and supported. The primary purpose of this study is to learn more about how students of color experience and make meaning of cross-racial relationships in designated multicultural programs. I intend to specifically focus on the experiences of students of color who have self-selected to live in a designated multicultural community. Chairperson: Dr. Joseph B. Berger.

Graduate Certificate in Latin American, Caribbean and Latino Studies

The Center for Latin American, Caribbean and Latino Studies offers an inter-disciplinary Graduate Certificate in Latin American, Caribbean and Latino Studies. The certificate is offered only in conjunction with a disciplinary master’s or doctoral degree program and is overseen by the Center’s faculty. It is intended to certify competency in area and language studies. It encourages enrolled graduate students to enhance their professional development by taking courses outside their discipline which contribute to training in internationalism, multiculturalism and foreign language competence.

For additional information on the Center, we encourage interested students to visit Gloria Bernabe-Ramos, the Associate Director and Chief Advisor of the Center for Latin American, Caribbean and Latino Studies, in her office, Thompson 520, and to visit www.umass.edu/clacls.
