GRADUATE STUDENT TRAVEL GRANTS

The Graduate School will be awarding a limited number of student travel grants for graduate students who will be presenting at recognized conferences during the 2007-08 academic year. Applications will be considered exclusively for travel to recognized conferences for the purpose of presenting the results of research conducted during graduate coursework at UMASS Amherst. Awards are for presentations rather than just attendance at a conference or event.

The application and expense summary can be downloaded from: http://www.umass.edu/gradschool/memo_to_graduate_students.htm

You should also complete the information on the Graduate Program Director’s Approval Form from the top of the page up to the Sources of Funding Section.

NOTE:
The procedures for applying for this grant have changed for this academic year. Be sure to read and carefully follow the directions outlined from the above site.

Criteria for nomination include merit of the project, prestige of the conference or event, and financial need of the student.

Awards will be made to the individual student rather than for a project (divided among several students). Grant amounts are up to $300.00 for domestic and $400.00 for international travel and will be considered for the fall and spring semesters. The Travel Grant Committee may not be able to fund all nominations that are forwarded for consideration.

If you anticipate presenting at a conference this fall, and would like your application given the best possible consideration, please email one copy of your application to your advisor and one copy to Linda Griffin, Graduate Program Director, (lgriffin@educ.umass.edu) no later than NOVEMBER 5, 2007.

All applications will be reviewed and rank ordered by your department chair before the final approval by Associate Dean Linda Griffin.

beginning at 5 p.m. followed by the talk at 5:30 in the New Africa House Library.

In 2001, the total cost of tuition and fees for all students enrolled in public colleges & universities was $32 billion - less than 2% of the federal budget at the time!

What if education were available for all students meeting admissions criteria, as a right, without tuition or fees, at any public college in the United States?

This talk is presented by the UMass Amherst Council of PHENOM, the Public Higher Education Network of Massachusetts. AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES FOR TEACHER EDUCATION (AACTE) ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual AACTE meeting will be held on February 7-10, 2008 at the Hilton New Orleans Riverside in New Orleans, LA.

This year’s theme is Quality Matters: Our Commitment to All Learners.

Over the years, AACTE has established a legacy of addressing quality matters in the preparation and support of teachers, counselors, and educational leaders. This tradition continues with the 2008 Annual Meeting, which will showcase AACTE member institutions in action through presentations and sessions on matters of quality related to equity, access and advocacy, collaboration, innovation, and accountability and impact. Given the current context in which quality matters more than ever to the public and to the profession, this year’s theme is designed to provide opportunities for demonstrating and sharing evidence of quality programs and outcomes for educator candidates and for all students.

INTERNATIONAL ALLIANCE OF TEACHER SCHOLARS

In 2008, the International Alliance of Teacher Scholars will host its 20th annual Lilly Conference on College & University Teaching on March 21 & 22 in Southern California. We call for your proposals and hope you will be able to participate. More information is below.

For almost 30 years the international and national Lilly Conferences have provided a forum for learning about, reporting, and discussing the results of the Scholarship of Teaching & Learning. Lilly Conferences are retreats that combine Scholarship of Teaching and Learning sessions, and major addresses, with lots of opportunities for informal discussion about excellence in college and university teaching and learning. Internationally-known scholars join new and experienced faculty members and administrators from all over the world to discuss topics such as gender differences in learning, incorporating technology into teaching, encouraging critical thinking, using teaching and student portfolios, implementing group learning, and evaluating teaching. Information on the International and other National Lilly Conferences can be found at Lilly Conference Information.

The welcoming "Lilly Spirit" and the high level of scholarly attention to teaching and learning enable everyone to contribute to the forum. You are invited to join as a presenter or an involved participant.

GRANT SEEKERS INFORMATION

SESSION

GSGS is sponsoring another Grant Seekers Information Session as part of our Proposal Writing Mentoring Program: Friday October 19th, 3:00-4:30pm, Campus Center 168C.

In this information session experienced interdisciplinary faculty will talk about do's and don'ts of proposal writing to funding agencies, the proposal review process and review criteria, research ethics etc. This information session is particularly designed to support students currently working on a proposal to a funder. The session is also a pre-requisite to attend a Proposal Writing Intensive Workshop (next on 11/2 and 11/16).

If you are in the process of applying to the - NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program, Ford Foundation Minority Fellowships, SSRC International Dissertation Research Fellowship, AAUW grants or fellowships, Switzer Foundation Fellowship Program, NSF Dissertation Improvement Grants, NASA Graduate Fellowships, Newcomen Society Predoctoral Fellowship, archival research grants, or any other(!) extramural funding application for your research, language training, or any other scholarly activity, you are strongly encouraged to attend the advertised session and take part in the Writing Intensive Workshops. Your proposal will come out sharper (and thus More competitive) than it went in. Promised.

For further information, contact: Katja Meinke and Bette Elsden, GSGS Coordinators at gsgs@grad.umass.edu.

ACADEMIC HONESTY STATEMENT OF POLICY

Since the integrity of the academic enterprise of any institution of higher education requires honesty in scholarship and research, academic honesty is required of all students at the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

Academic dishonesty is prohibited in all programs of the University. Academic dishonesty includes but is not limited to: cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, and facilitating dishonesty. [See http://www.umass.edu/dean_students/code_conduct/acad_honest.htm for detailed examples of behavior that constitutes academic dishonesty.] Appropriate sanctions may be imposed on any student who has committed an act of academic dishonesty.
Instructors should take reasonable steps to address academic misconduct. [See http://www.umass.edu/dean_students/code_conduct/acad_honest.htm for some suggested ways to deal with issues of academic integrity.] Any person who has reason to believe that a student has committed academic dishonesty should bring such information to the attention of the appropriate course instructor as soon as possible. Instances of academic dishonesty not related to a specific course should be brought to the attention of the appropriate department Head or Chair.
