

Everywoman's Center - Educator Advocate Program Spring 2009 Workshops

Let's Talk About Sex

Think talking about sex kills the mood? In this lively (and sometimes humorous) discussion, we'll talk about how to talk about sex so that whatever we do with our partner(s) is respectful, safer, consensual, and fun.

Got Consent?

What is consent, anyway? And what isn't it? Why is it important? And how do I get it and give it? This interactive workshop explores answers to all these questions and more.

Building Healthy Relationships

Compared to the number of hours we've spent learning calculus, chemistry, and languages, most of us spend close to no time learning about relationships. Whether you are in a relationship, wish you knew how to get into one, or desperately want to get out of one, this interactive workshop can help you get there.

Standing By or Standing Up?

Concerned about sexual violence? We are too. There are many ways that individuals can make a difference, whether they are at a party or in a private residence. Through the use of scenarios, this program explores the many ways each of us can take action to intervene or prevent sexual violence.

Sexual Assault 101

This interactive workshop is an introduction to sexual assault—what it is and how it affects people. We'll also debunk some common myths about sexual assault.

Custom Sexual Assault and Relationship Violence Programs

Can't find the program you are looking for? Ask us! We'll adapt any of our programs to meet the needs of your group.