

Supporting Survivors of Domestic and Sexual Violence in Our Congregations

A Training Institute for Lay Leaders in Hampshire and Franklin Counties

Presented by Reverend Dr. Anne Marie Hunter and Alyson Morse Katzman of Safe Havens Interfaith Partnership Against Domestic Violence

Please join us for an engaging evening workshop exploring strategies to make our congregations safer for survivors of domestic and sexual violence.

January 11, 2012

6:00pm-8:30pm

Smith College,
Northampton, MA

This workshop is free of charge

For more information or to register please contact:

Amy Waldman, Project Director MA Rural Domestic and Sexual Violence Project
413-586-7525 x3142
Amy.Waldman@state.ma.us

Sponsored by the Massachusetts Rural Domestic and Sexual Violence Project of the Dept of Public Health, Everywoman's Center of UMASS Amherst and New England Learning Center for Women in Transition

PRELIMINARY TRAINING TOPICS

Enhancing our knowledge of the impact of domestic and sexual violence on survivors in our congregations

Exploring how our faith traditions can offer both resources and challenges to survivors

Identifying strategies to make our congregations safer for survivors

This project is supported by Grant # 2005-WR-AX-0009 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this publication (training) are those of the authors