INTERDEPARTMENTAL PROGRAM IN FILM STUDIES
21st annual Massachusetts Multicultural Film Festival

Join us to celebrate 12 weeks of compelling cinema!

Reality Narratives

The 21st Annual Massachusetts Multicultural Film Festival, “Reality Narratives,” explores the blurred boundaries between documentary and fiction that have been present since the birth of cinema and that constitute a major conceptual force in contemporary filmmaking. Hosting nine filmmakers who will be present for discussion, our festival program observes the hybrid, amalgamated spaces between these genres, juxtaposing methodologies and narratives that blend the “factual” with the “fictional.” In so doing, the festival raises ethical questions about the “truth claims” and “reality principles” of a wide-ranging, eclectic body of international cinema, recasting conventional definitions and distinctions in a variety of works and styles.

All events are free and open to the public.
