

German 391G (JYW) :

German & Scandinavian Studies Junior Seminar

Conducted in English. This course is designed to introduce majors to a range of issues and approaches central to contemporary German and Scandinavian Studies, while focusing on upper-level writing and analytical skills. We will explore how these interdisciplinary fields of study approach events and artifacts of modern history and art. At the same time, we will develop the writing and analytical skills required to handle advanced study of complex social, historical, and creative subject matter. Fulfills Junior Year Writing Requirement.

TuTh, 1:00-2:15

Prof. Kyle Frackman
frackman@german.umass.edu

umass.edu/german

