The University of Massachusetts is pleased to announce that ComPsych GuidanceResources is your new provider of Employee Assistance services. Your GuidanceResources benefits will give you and your dependents confidential support, resources and information for personal and work-life issues. Personal issues, planning for life events or simply managing daily life can affect your work, health and family. This flyer explains how GuidanceResources can help you and your family deal with everyday challenges. These services are provided to you and your dependents at no charge to you.

Confidential Counseling
Someone to talk to.
This no-cost counseling service helps you address stress, relationship and other personal issues you and your family may face. It is staffed by GuidanceConsultants—highly trained master's and doctoral level clinicians who will listen to your concerns and quickly refer you to in-person counseling and other resources for:

- Stress, anxiety and depression
- Job pressures
- Relationship/marital conflicts
- Grief and loss
- Problems with children
- Substance abuse
