ACLIP REGISTRATION-- Summer 2017

American Culture and Language Program sponsored by the International Programs Office, UMass Amherst
(Note: Ongoing registration will be allowed throughout the semester)

CLASSES OFFERED FOR SUMMER SESSION 2017 (June 9 - August 9):

 Intermediate. (Monday & Wednesday evenings 7:00-9:00pm, Herter Hall room #102. Instructor: James Wilk)
This course is designed to strengthen students' abilities to listen and to speak. Reading and writing will also be emphasized to support the main goal of improving conversation skills. Special attention will also be focused on gaining confidence while speaking English on the telephone.

 Advanced. (Mondays & Wednesday evenings from 7:00-9:00pm, Herter Hall room#119. Instructor: Prof. JP Berwald)
This course will focus on conversational skills needed to function in daily life in the U.S.; brief grammar review, vocabulary study and practical exchanges with idioms as well as the cultural implications of English. Broadcast media is also used to read and listen to articles of current interest.

Each class is $75 per term. All community students, scholars, and their families are very welcome! Registration and payments can be made online:

If you have a UMass ID: https://quikpayasp.com/umass/commerce_manager/payer.do?orderType=IPO_ACLP
If you do not have a UMass ID: https://quikpayasp.com/umass/commerce_manager/payer.do?orderType=IPO_ACLP_NO

Notes:

- Classes are non-refundable.
- Ongoing registration is allowed throughout the semester.
- Participants are allowed to change classes (Advanced to Intermediate, or Intermediate to Advanced) at any time with instructor’s permission at no additional cost.