What It Takes to Win: Italian Fairy-Tale Heroes from Basile to Calvino

Nancy Canepa (http://dfd.dartmouth.edu/profiles/48) is Associate Professor of Italian at Dartmouth College. Her research and teaching interests include early modern Italian literature and culture, fairy tales, dialect literature, and translation. Past and present projects include the 1999 book From Court to Forest: Giambattista Basile’s Lo cunto de li cunti and the Birth of the Literary Fairy Tale, which won the MLA Marraro/Scaglione Prize for Italian Studies; a complete English translation of Basile’s Lo cunto de li cunti ("The Tale of Tales"), published in 2007; a translated anthology of Italian fairy tales titled The Enchanted Boot (ongoing); a volume on teaching Fairy Tales (ongoing); and the critical monograph Baroque Metamorphoses: Cultural Shifts in Seventeenth-Century Naples, also ongoing.
