Genocide: From Justice to Prevention

Tuesday, Nov. 10th at 7PM
Commonwealth Room
(where Earthfoods is located)

Blanche Foster

Executive Director, Darfur Rehabilitation Project

Ms. Foster received an award from the United Nations for her work in social justice and is a former member of the Black Caucus. At the helm of DRP, an organization founded by Darfuri-Americans to unify the voices of victims, Ms. Foster was the first African-American to raise Darfur as a black issue in the United States.

Amy Fagin

Local Artist and Social Justice Activist

Seen here in a self-portrait, Ms. Fagin brings to life the ancient art of illuminated manuscripts. Her current exhibit, "Beyond Genocide," confronts 25 mass atrocities. She will discuss implementing international justice and share her experience as an activist.

Presented alongside the Student Union Art Gallery exhibit, "Never Again: Genocide from Cambodia to Darfur and Beyond." Sponsors include the Office of Jewish Affairs and the Western Massachusetts Darfur Coalition. Details available at umass.stand@gmail.com or on Campus Pulse.
