

Getting There

The JITP Conference will be held in the Commons Room of Parrington Hall on the main campus of the University of Washington. If you are coming from downtown, take the 72 73 or 74 bus from the bus tunnel (going north). They come every 10 minutes or so and take about 25 minutes to get to campus. The bus doesn't stop until campus, but get off on the second stop (University Ave on the west side of campus). Then follow the students and you will be very close to Parrington Hall (a.k.a. the Evans School).
