

JUNIPER SUMMER WRITING INSTITUTE

Scholarship Application

2012 Institute: June 24-30

The Institute offers several work-study scholarships of 50% tuition remission. Applicants for these scholarships should be able and willing to carry out daily administrative and logistical tasks in support of Institute activities. The Institute also offers several scholarship grants of 25% tuition remission. No extra duties are attached to these scholarships. To be considered for a scholarship, please complete this form and return it along with your personal statement (see instructions below) and general application materials.

Scholarship applications must be postmarked by April 2, 2012. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of merit and need. We especially encourage applicants of diverse backgrounds and life experiences, and those who have experienced disadvantage or discrimination. We invite you to address these challenges, if applicable, in your personal statement.
