Some Elements of Procedural Due Process of Law
(As discussed in class)

1. Privilege against self-incrimination/no coerced confessions/defendant’s right to remain silent.
2. An independent judiciary.
3. Right to a speedy, public trial before an impartial judge/trial by jury of peers.
4. Right to counsel.
5. Right to compel testimony of witnesses and present evidence/to cross-examine adverse witnesses/to be informed of charges and of evidence against you.
6. Presumption of innocence.
7. Right to privacy in person, papers and effects, home. No searches and seizures without probable cause, judicial warrant.
8. Access to the legal system (courts), including by writ of habeas corpus. 