

BEFORE THE LAW 7TH Edition Key

Thursday, September 21st

- Martin Luther King, "Letter from Birmingham Jail"
In 8th edition- on syllabus: pages 251-254
In 7th edition: 238-240

Tuesday, September 26th

- Peter Kropotkin, "Law and Authority"
In 8th edition- on syllabus: pages 158-163
In 7th edition: 149-153
- Peter D'Errico, "The Law is Terror Put Into Words"
In 8th edition- on syllabus: pages 246-249
In 7th edition: 233-237

Thursday, October 5th

- Florida v. Bostwick
In 8th edition- on syllabus: pages 293-299
In 7th edition: 281-288

Thursday, October 19th

- Frank, "The Fight Theory versus the Truth Theory"
In 8th edition- on syllabus: pages 375-380
In 7th edition: 351-356

Thursday, October 26th

- Batson v. Kentucky
In 8th edition- on syllabus: pages 455-458
In 7th edition: 423-427

Tuesday, November 14th

- Duncan Kennedy, "Legal Education and the Reproduction of Hierarchy"
In 8th edition- on syllabus: 351-359
In 7th edition: 328-336
- Patricia Williams, "Diary of a Law Professor"
In 8th edition- on syllabus: pages 360-367
In 7th edition: 337-343

Required readings listed on the syllabus found only in the 8th edition:

Tuesday, October 3rd

- Herman Goldstein, "Confronting the Complexity of the Policing Function"
- Jackie Campbell, "Walking the Beat Alone: An African American Police Officer's Perspective on Petite Apartheid"
- "Incarcerated America"

Thursday, December 7th

- Perschbacher and Bassett, "The End of Law"

