APPLICATION FOR JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP

Instructions to student:

To be eligible for the Judicial Internship Program, you must be a Legal Studies major and have already completed Judge Carhart’s course, Legal 391U, Due Process in the Criminal Trial. The maximum number of credits you can receive for this internship is 9. The number of credits correlates to the amount of time you spend at the internship (3 credits for each full day per week at the internship). In addition to the work you will do at the internship, you will also be expected to participate in a one-credit Internship Seminar with other Legal Studies students who are interning at different sites.

Please attach a copy of your transcript to this application. Return this application to Prof. Holmes, Gordon Hall 108, no later than one week before pre-registration.

Name: ________________________________________________________________

Local address ___________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________

Telephone _____________________________________________________________

E-mail _________________________________________________________________

Expected date of graduation _____________________________________________

When do you want to do this internship? ________________________________

When did you take Judge Carhart’s course? ________________________________

How many credits do you want to receive? ________________________________

Write a short statement explaining what you hope to learn from this internship.