

The Department of Music and Dance
University of Massachusetts Amherst

Announces the Position of:

VOICE

Position: Lecturer. Non-Tenure Track. Initial appointment for one year with possibility of renewal.

Salary: Commensurate with Lecturer rank.

Qualifications: Doctorate or masters preferred, equivalent professional experience considered. Preference for soprano or mezzo soprano. Evidence of excellence in teaching at the college/university level. Evidence of successful recruiting. Ability to work effectively with department's choral program.

Responsibilities: Teach studio voice to undergraduate and graduate students. Team teach the opera scenes course with other voice faculty. Additional teaching responsibilities depend on candidate's areas of expertise, may include diction, vocal literature. Participate in auditions and recruitment activities, may include visits to secondary schools, offering workshops, adjudicating and actively participating in the on-campus performance series. Maintain regional and national visibility as a vocalist as part of professional development. Applicant must be willing and available to address responsibilities during regular work week, as needed. Advise undergraduate and graduate students, serve on committees and perform other university and professional service, as appropriate. Position begins September 1, 2008.

Review of applications will begin February 25, 2008 and continue until the position is filled.
Send materials to:

Prof. William Hite, Chair
Voice Search Committee
Department of Music and Dance
Fine Arts Center
University of Massachusetts
Amherst, MA 01003-9274

Applications should consist of a cover letter, curriculum vitae, three current letters of recommendation with reference contact information along with a CD or DVD representative of recent performances. Additional supporting materials may be requested from finalists. Application materials will not be returned.

UMass Amherst is a member of the Five College Consortium along with Amherst, Hampshire, Smith, and Mount Holyoke Colleges and is also a member of the Academic Career Network, a resource for dual career couples. The University of Massachusetts Amherst is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer; applications from women and members of minority groups are encouraged. The department is committed to developing a more diverse faculty, student body, and curriculum.