

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN MUSIC: MUSIC THEORY¹

Degree Checklist

Program - Sixty semester hours of approved course work beyond the Master's degree, which include eighteen hours of dissertation credit.

Admission to program – In addition to the general requirements listed above on page 1, applicants must satisfy the following requirements before being admitted:

1. Possession of a Master's degree in music with a concentration in theory.
2. The Master's Thesis and other major analytic paper(s).

Exams:

History Cognate (Date Passed) _____
Language Proficiency 1 (Language/Date Passed) _____
Language Proficiency 2 (Language/Date Passed) _____
Qualifying Exam (Date Passed) _____

Major Studies:

MUS 793: History of Theory	3 credits
MUS 591S: Post-Tonal Theory	3 credits
MUS 790: Sem/Prac. Teaching	3 credits
MUS 791: Ind. Teaching	3 credits
MUS 600: Bibliography	3 credits
MUS 659: Composition	3 credits
MUS 899: Dissertation	18 credits

Other Music Studies:

THEORY: Two required from among the approved courses listed above
6 credits

HISTORY: Two required from among the approved courses listed above
6 credits

Electives:

Electives 12 credits

Degree Total: 60 credits

¹ It is assumed that incoming students have completed all requirements for the M.M. in Music Theory.