

Degree Checklist

MASTER OF MUSIC IN MUSIC EDUCATION

The Master of Music degree in Music Education is intended for musicians/teachers who desire to pursue graduate study in the field of music education in order to continue the development of their creative and pedagogical skills and their understanding as music teachers in public and private K-12 settings. The goals of the Master of Music degree are to provide advanced training in a specific emphasis area, confer degrees to students who can communicate musical knowledge in oral and written form and prepare students for employment in the field of music.

(4) Kodaly Program. In conjunction with the Kodaly Institute at the New England Conservatory of Music, students may transfer 8 credits of their Kodaly study to the MM in Music Education degree. Students may then pay UMass, Amherst tuition for 7 additional credits to be counted as elective credits in the degree program. In effect, this allows 15 credits toward the total of 33 to be earned as part of the Kodaly Institute studies. The remaining 18 credits of Music Studies academic requirements must be completed on the Amherst campus either during the regular academic year or through the 4-Summer program.

+4-Summers Masters Students do not enroll in ensembles. Instead, the number of electives increases to 15.

*1 In the Choral Conducting program, the 6 credits of MUS ED: 691 are to be divided as follows:

Seminar: Advanced Choral Conducting	2 credits
Seminar: Conductor's Analysis/Score Study	2 credits
Independent Study (Choral Literature)	2 credits

The seminars are to be taken in the first year, the independent study in the first semester of the second year, and the required recital in the second semester of the second year.
