National results are shown in NAVY & WHITE |

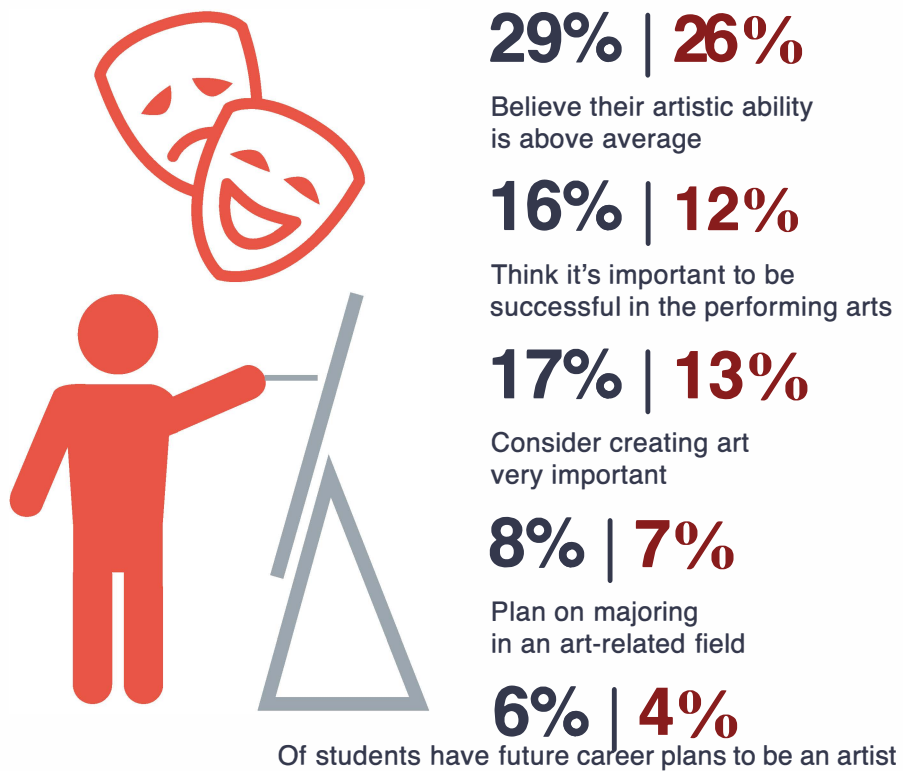

UMass Amherst results are shown in Maroon

From creative endeavors to technology, incoming first-year students are interested in building on their skills. In fact, post-college jobs and making a difference in the world are motivating factors for the freshman class of 2017.

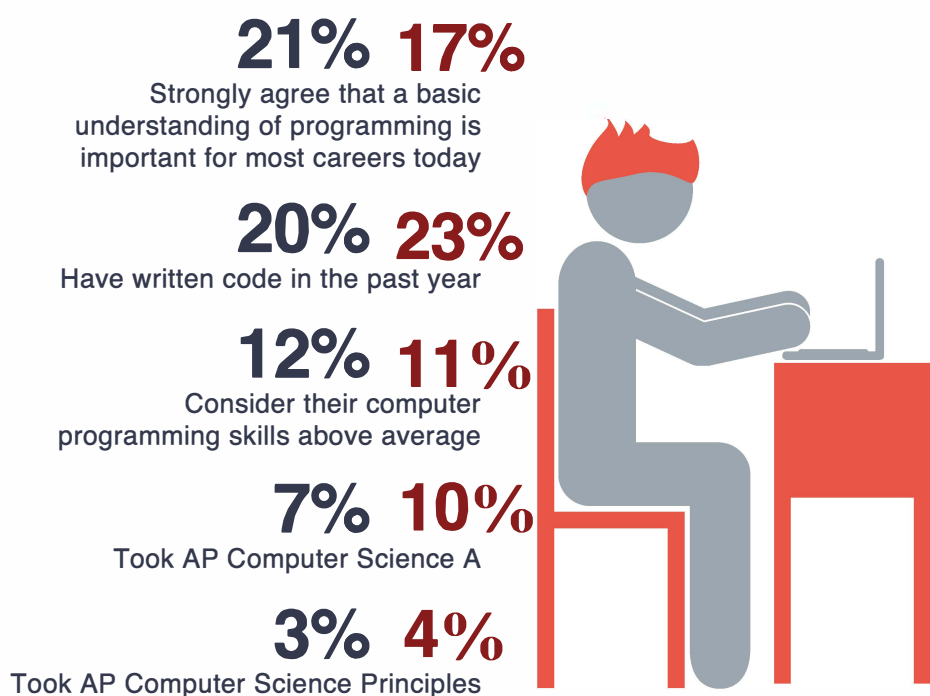

For freshmen, choosing a college is based on a variety of decisions.

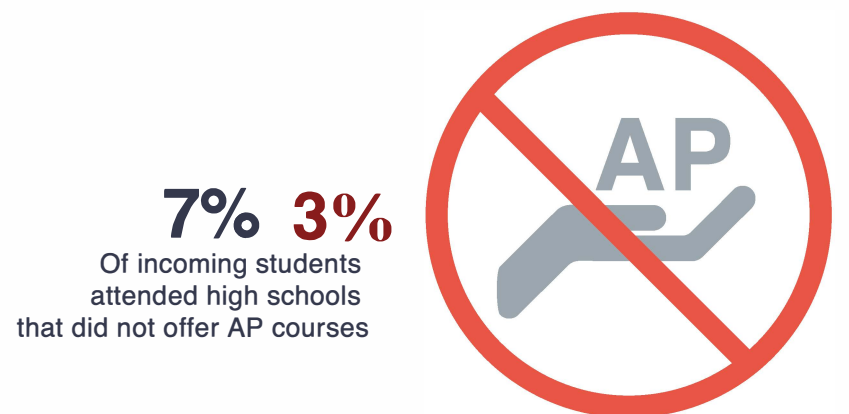

Some students are artistic...

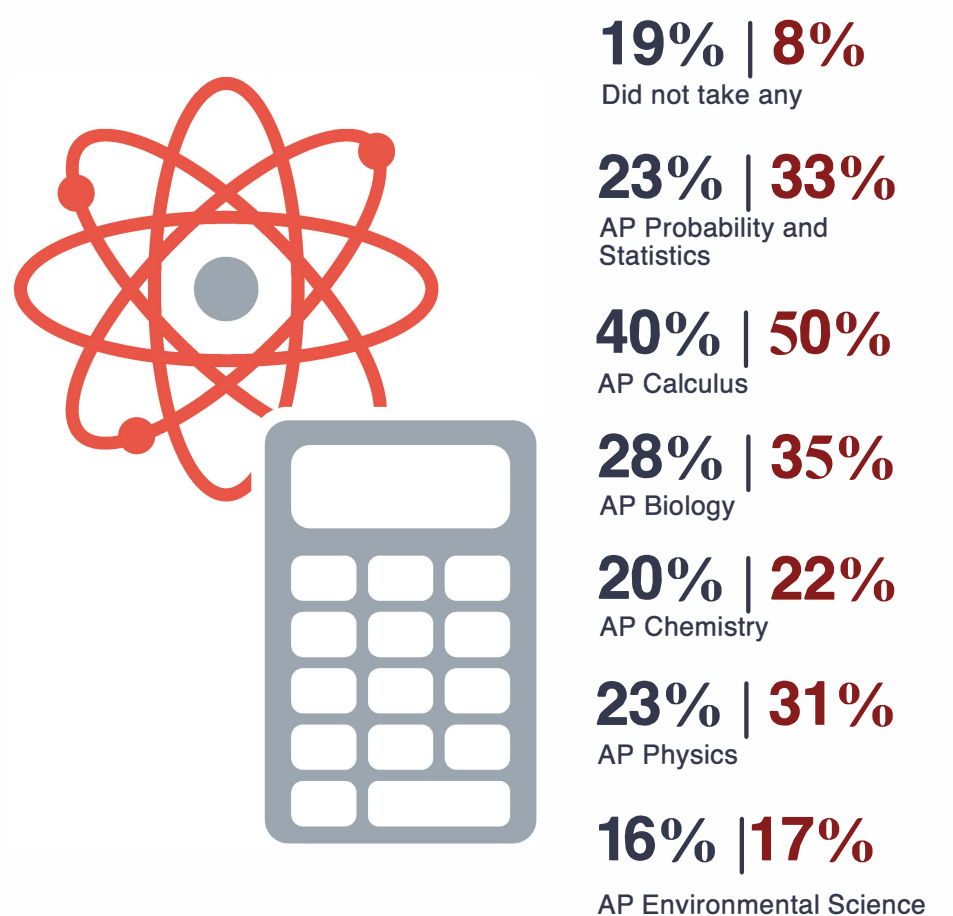

...And some are tech-savvy.

Students' experiences with AP courses varies:

Of those who attended high schools that offered AP courses, they took the following:

Information about students entering college helps enrollment planning, retention efforts, and provides a baseline for understanding college effectiveness.
