Note 8: Instructor FTEs are reported as a semester average (the sum of fall and spring semesters divided by two).

Note 7: Independent Study, Practicum, and thesis sections are excluded. The FTEs associated with these sections are included in Student/Faculty ratio tables.

Note 5: Instruction is reported according to the department in which the instructor of record is budgeted. Teaching Associates and other instructors under Non-Tenure System Faculty are assigned based on the course rubric.

Note 4: Sections are distributed proportionally based on both the number of instructors and the number of times the section is cross-listed. Cross-listed sections are counted only once.

Note 2: Data reflect the organizational structure as of Fall 2017.

Included. Non-credit lab and discussion sections taught by teaching assistants, as well as those with no assigned instructor, are counted in the Teaching Associates group.

Graduate Sections:
100-level and 200-level course sections. Generally the primary credit-bearing section of a course where instruction is provided principally by means of regularly scheduled face-to-face meetings. Sections are counted once regardless of the
