

MASSACHUSETTS BANKERS ASSOCIATION INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The 2007 Financial Literacy Internship Education Program

The Massachusetts Bankers Association (MBA) and all 210 banks across Massachusetts are pleased to partner with the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences (CSBS) in offering a paid internship with potential academic credit* for the Spring 2007 semester. MBA is looking for 2-3 students to meet with bankers for two sessions early in the Spring semester to become trained in basic financial literacy issues and obtain resource materials for use in developing programs on campus.

Students selected for this internship will:

- Work with bankers and faculty to develop workshops and events on campus focused on helping fellow UMass students learn financial literacy and understand credit scores and responsible credit usage.
- Work about 40-50 hours during the spring semester and get paid $500***
- Make valuable connections in the Massachusetts Banking Industry
- Gain great experience for future careers in banking, finance and communication
- Use and develop skills in public speaking, event planning, conducting workshops, and executing marketing plans
- Learn about financial literacy and other issues facing consumers today
