Order Placement:

University Department will place orders with a University Purchase Orders or use of the University PROCard Credit Card.

University Procurement Card:

The University system has a credit card program (Procard), to pay for certain types of purchases. Should the ordering department elect to pay for these services via the UMass Procard, would the bidder be willing to accept it? Yes: _____ No: _____

Payment:

The University's payment terms are Net thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of contractor's invoice, (in arrears, after the service has been provided), with late penalty interest assessable at rates established by the Commonwealth after 45 days in accordance with Massachusetts General Laws ch. 29 §29C and with Commonwealth regulation 815 C.M.R. 4.00.

W-9:

The successful bidder will be required to provide original signed W-9 form to the University if they are not already a recognized University vendor. A copy of this form can be accessed at: www.umass.edu/procurement - Click on "Forms" - Click on "University of Massachusetts Substitute W-9 Form".

Bid Rejection

The University reserves the right to reject any or all bids, wholly or in part, and to request any additional information it deems necessary to support the bids, including, but not necessarily limited to, bidder's technical, service, and financial qualifications. The University further reserves the right to make the award in a manner deemed in the best interests of the University.

Certification:

Contractor certifies under the pains and penalties of perjury that pursuant to Mass. Gen. Laws ch.62C, §49A, that the contractor has filed all state tax returns, paid all taxes and complied with all applicable laws relating to taxes; and that pursuant to Mass. Gen. Laws ch.151A, §19A(b), has complied with all laws of the Commonwealth relating to contributions and payment in lieu of contributions to the Employment Security System; and with all laws of the Commonwealth relating to Worker's Compensation, ch.152. Pursuant to federal law, contractor shall verify the immigration status of all workers assigned to the contract without engaging in unlawful discrimination; and contractor shall not knowingly or recklessly alter, falsify, or accept altered or falsified documents from any such worker.

Independent Contractor Status:

The contractor is an independent contractor and not an employee or agent of the University. No act or direction of the University shall be deemed to create an employer/employee or joint employer relationship. The University shall not be obligated under any contract, subcontract, or other commitment made by the contractor.

Compliance with Laws and Regulations:

The contractor shall observe and obey all laws, ordinances, regulations, and rules of the Federal Government, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, local municipalities, and the University of Massachusetts Amherst which may be applicable to its operation herein, and shall, at its own cost, obtain and maintain all permits and licenses necessary of and to its operation.

Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer:

The University of Massachusetts is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer and as such prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, sex, age, marital status, national origin, mental or physical disability, political belief or affiliation, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, genetic information and any other class of individuals protected from discrimination under state or federal law in any aspect of the admission or treatment of students or in employment. The successful Contractor shall adhere to the same principles.

Rehabilitation Compliance:

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the implementing regulations of that Federal Act (45 CFR 84), the University of Massachusetts / Amherst does not discriminate on the basis of handicap in admission or access to, or treatment of employment in the programs and activities which the University operates. Inquiries concerning compliance with the regulations stated in the Federal Act should be directed to the Chancellor's Office; Whitmore Building; Amherst, MA 01003 Phone: 413-545-2004.

Recordkeeping, Audit and Inspection of Records:

The contractor shall maintain books, records and other compilations of data pertaining to the requirements of the Contract to the extent and in such detail as shall properly substantiate claims for payment under the Contract. All such records shall be kept for a period of six (6) years or for such longer period as is specified herein. All retention periods start on the first day after final payment under this Contract. If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the records is commenced prior to the expiration of the applicable retention period, all records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues resulting therefrom, or until the end of the applicable retention period, whichever is later. The Governor, the Secretary of Administration and Finance, the State Comptroller, the State Auditor, the Attorney General, the Federal grantor agency (if any), the University, or any of their duly authorized representatives or designees shall have the right at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice, to examine and copy, at reasonable expense, the books, records, and other compilations of data of the contractor which pertain to the provisions and requirements of this Contract. Such access shall include on-site audits, review, and copying of records

Choice of Law:

The laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, without giving effect to its conflicts of law principles, govern all matters arising out of or relating to this Contract and all of the transactions it contemplates, including, without limitation, its validity, interpretation, construction, performance and enforcement. The contractor agrees to bring any federal or state legal proceedings arising under this Contract in which the Commonwealth or the University is a party, in a court of competent jurisdiction within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. This paragraph shall not be construed to limit any other legal rights of the Parties.

Indemnification of the University:

The contractor shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Commonwealth, the University, its Trustees, Officers, servants, and employees from and against any and all claims, liability, losses, third party claims, damages, costs, or expenses (including attorneys' and experts' fees) arising out of or resulting from the performance of the services performed by the contractor, its agents, servants, employees, or subcontractors under this Contract, provided that any such claims, liability, losses, third party claims, damages, costs, or expenses are attributable to bodily injury, personal injury, pecuniary injury, damage to real or tangible personal property, resulting there- from and caused in whole or in part by any intentional or negligent acts or omissions of the contractor, its employees, servants, agents, or subcontractors. The foregoing express obligation of indemnification shall not be construed to negate or abridge any other obligation of indemnification running to the Commonwealth and/or the University that would otherwise exist. The University shall give the contractor prompt and timely notice of any claims, threatened or made, or any law suit instituted against it which could result in a claim for indemnification hereunder. The extent of this Contract of indemnification shall not be limited by any obligation or any term or condition of any insurance policy. The obligations set forth above shall survive the expiration or termination of this Contract.

Tax Exempt Status:

The University is exempt from federal excise, state, and local taxes; therefore, sales to the University are exempt from Massachusetts sales and use taxes. If the University should become subject to any such taxes during the term of this Contract, the University shall reimburse the contractor for any cost or expense incurred. Any other taxes imposed on the contractor on account of this Contract shall be borne solely by the contractor.

Sustainability:

The University of Massachusetts signed the President's Climate commitment in 2007. See link for more information: www.presidentsclimatecommitment.org The University is committed to reducing the adverse environmental impact of our purchasing decisions; we are committed to buy goods and services from manufacturers and suppliers who share our environmental concern and commitment. We encourage proposals to include economical and environmentally friendly products and service options which serve to minimize waste, reduce excess packaging, recycle, reduce, reuse, prevent pollution and/or offer resource efficiency. It is our goal to maximize environmental responsibility on the UMass Campuses. Please propose details on how your company can support our initiative to provide sustainable products and services to our end-users.

- ◆ Describe the tools and resources that are available to our campuses.
- ◆ Describe what initiatives your company has implemented and is working on.
- ◆ Are green and recycled products clearly identified on your web ordering system so users can easily recognize them when ordering?

The University recommends that vendors use recycled paper and double-sided copying for production of all printed and photocopied documents.

Data Security and Breach Notification:

The vendor shall protect data and information provided by the University to Vendor ("University Data") to commercially acceptable standards and no less rigorously than it protects its own confidential information.

The vendor shall develop, implement, maintain and use appropriate administrative, technical, and physical security measures to preserve the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of University data.

The Vendor will not provide any University data to and sub-contractor or agent without the prior express written permission of the University or as otherwise provided under the agreement.

The Vendor shall retain any University data only as long as needed for the specified purposed and to securely dispose of any University data when there is no longer a business need to retain that data.

The Vendor agrees to notify the University immediately if any breach of the security, confidentiality or integrity of University data occurs; assist the University in any subsequent investigation and notification processes; and to otherwise comply with all applicable Massachusetts and federal laws and regulations regarding data security and breach notifications, such as M.G.L. c. 93H and Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH Act).

PCI-DSS (Payment Card Industry-Data Security Standard):

Treasurer's Office required language:

Service Providers and third-party providers and the "UMASS merchant" represent and warrant to the other party that it is Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI-DSS) compliant and shall remain compliant during the term of the Agreement. In the case of a third-party application, the applications will be listed as PA DSS compliant at the time of implementation by the University. In either situation, should either party become non-compliant during the term, the non-compliant party shall promptly notify the other party of its non-compliance status. Both parties are responsible for the security of the cardholder data that is in such party's control or possession, as mandated by PCI DSS in the performance of their individual and mutual responsibilities under this Agreement.

Service Providers must be listed on the Visa Global List of PCI DSS Validated Service Providers. Third-party applications must be listed on the PCI Security Standards Council List of Validated Payment Applications (PA-DSS). Should the Service Provider or Third Party Application not be listed, a letter from a Qualified Security Assessor stating compliance must be submitted.

Receipt of RFB from a Source Other than Issuing Office – WARNING:

Prospective bidders who have received this document from a source other than the Issuing Office should be aware that all official documents, including amendments, are posted on the University of Massachusetts Amherst Procurement web-site at: <http://www.umass.edu/procurement/bidsopen>
