

Minutes from the First Meeting of the Task Force on Instructional Technology
Met on Friday, November 21, 2003

The group introduced themselves (see below for the list of members and for those who were present at the first meeting).

Provost Charlena Seymour welcomed and thanked the members for accepting this task. She went over the group's charge (see below) and wished us well.

Each participant was asked to write down three items that they considered were currently working well and must not be damaged by addressing other items and to list three high priority items that this group should address. The pages were collected and a group discussion followed. Those pages have now been typed and were sent out with the agenda for the second meeting of the task force (December 5, 2003) along with summaries for each.

Next Meeting: Friday, Dec 5th, 3 to 4:30 pm. This Room.
