

Compendium of Flowering Potted Plant Diseases

Authors: Margery L. Daughtrey, Cornell University; Robert L. Wick, University of Massachusetts; Joseph Peterson, Rutgers University

Covers most flowering potted plants, including: anemone, begonias, columbine, cyclamen, dahlia, fuchsia, gardenia, geranium, hibiscus, hydrangea, Impatiens, poinsettia, Vinca, and many others. 90 pages; 245 color photographs; 60 black/white photographs and illustrations.

Partial contents:

Part I. Infectious Diseases

- Diseases Caused by Fungi
- Leaf Spots and Blights
- Stem Canker Diseases
- Minor Leaf, Flower, and Stem Diseases
- Root and Crown Rot Diseases
- Diseases Caused by Oomycetes
- Powdery Mildew Diseases
- Rust Diseases
- Vascular Wilt Diseases
- Diseases Caused by Bacteria
- Diseases Caused by pathovars of Xanthomonas campestris
- Diseases Caused by Phytoplasmas
- Diseases Caused by Viruses
- Diseases Caused by Nematodes

Part II. Noninfectious Diseases and Arthropod Injuries

- Air Pollution Injury
- Nutrient Disorders
- Edema
- Pesticide and Growth Regulator Injuries
- Insect and mite Injuries