TENZIN THARGAY
tthargay@umass.edu

Tenzin is pursuing a dual degree in Political Science and Chinese, and has taken several classes with the Five College Interchange. He has done research in political science, as well as having had internship experience off-campus. He has a knack for finding funding on campus, and building relationships with professors.

HADIYA WILLIAMS
hnwilliams@umass.edu

Hadiya is a junior studying Psych-Neuroscience and Public Health Science. She has a wide variety of experience doing health-related research in various labs on campus. Hadiya is involved in student activism, with a focus on anti-racist activism. She has also participated in a service-learning alternative spring break.

AINSLEY BROSNAN-SMITH
abrosnanmit@umass.edu

Ainsley is a Natural Resource Conservation and Sustainable Food and Farming double major. She is involved with the Eco-Rep Course and serves as the Secretary of Sustainability for the Student Government Association (SGA). Ainsley also works with the composting program on campus, and does work with the Center for Education Policy and Advocacy.

KEVIN CASTIGLIONI
kcastiglioni@umass.edu

Kevin is a senior majoring in Communication. He is immersed in the Residential Life program at UMass, currently working as a Resident Assistant (RA) and serving on the RA House Council. He has had two summer internships off-campus.
ORETT BURKE
oburke@umass.edu

Orett is a senior majoring in Biology. He has had two summer internships during his time at UMass, both of which were research-based and funded. Orett has a history of building strong relationships with professors, and has some great tips on how to do that!

EMMI BEUGER
ebeuger@umass.edu

Emmi is a sophomore studying International Relations and Human Rights through a BDIC major. She has had two internships for credit, one over the summer and one during the semester. Emmi has taken Five College Interchange courses, and is very involved in Student Government Association and political activism on campus.

ARTHUR HAYDEN
awhayden@umass.edu

Arthur is a senior majoring in Political Science. He studied abroad in Nanjing, China his junior year, and he works in the International Programs Office (IPO). He is also part of an on-campus Improv Comedy Registered Student Organization.

ASHIRA WEINSTEIN
alweinstein@umass.edu

Ashira is a sophomore studying Marketing. She had an internship in Israel during the summer of 2015, where she gained business skills while exploring a different part of the world.

DURGA KOLLA
skolla@umass.edu

Durga is a senior with a double major in Public Health and Psychology (Neuroscience). She started a Registered Student Organization (RSO) called MEDLIFE and works for the Office for Undergraduate Research (OURS) as a Research Mentor. She has traveled to Peru through a service-learning alternative spring break, and is involved in Residential Life on campus.
MADELEINE JACKMAN
mjackman@umass.edu
Madeleine is a senior with a double-major in English, and Social Thought & Political Economy. She has studied abroad three times, beginning with the Oxford Summer Seminar, and then doing one semester in Morocco and a service-learning based semester in Peru. Madeleine also works in the International Programs Office (IPO).

SHAKIRAH SSEBYALA
sssebyala@umass.edu
Shakirah is a sophomore studying Biochemistry and Molecular Biology. Utilizing the Office for Undergraduate Research (OURS), she was able to find a paid research internship last summer in Boston.

MAX MASON
memason@umass.edu
Max is a senior with a major in Sports Management and a minor in Economics. He helps run a nonprofit in downtown Amherst, working with kids in the local school district. He has taken a Five College Interchange course as well as having had an internship that lead to a job with the Baltimore Orioles. He also works as a campus tour guide. Max feels especially passionate about “saying yes” to new opportunities!

BRYN HENNIGAR
bhennigar@umass.edu
Bryn is a sophomore studying Public Health Sciences and Psychology. She is involved with service learning on and off campus, and works in the Civic Engagement and Service Learning (CESL) office.

Feel free to reach out to the RAP office at PathwayssUMass@gmail.com. We’d love to hear from you, and we’d LOVE if you were interested in being a panelist in Fall of 2017!