French Language Program

If you would like to experience everyday life en français, Thatcher French is an excellent way to do that right on campus!

Participants in the Thatcher French live together in the residence hall that includes a classroom, kitchen, and lounges, where they can socialize in the language. In addition, students meet in the classroom regularly during the week for a specially-designed, two-credit conversation/culture course.

A community develops around speaking French and taking part in cultural activities, from the frivolous to the serious. Participants have played Pictionary and Trivial Pursuit en français, sponsored "Le Café Français" (coffee and conversation in the Campus Center), screened classic and contemporary films from France, organized a French cooking workshop, and hosted une soirée crêpe for other house residents.

Both French majors and non-majors from a variety of disciplines make up the Thatcher French Program. Often members become double majors, adding French fluency to their professional training. Students have found the French Language Program community an excellent place to prepare for study abroad in Rouen and Paris, as well as a supportive community to return to after studying in France.
