German Language Program

Werde Teil der deutschen Thatcher community!

The Thatcher Language House offers the opportunity to live in a residence hall dedicated to learning a world language and exploring world cultures. In this hall of 110 students, the majority are a part of one of the seven Language and Culture Programs.

Participants in the Thatcher House German Language Program have access to the Max Kade German Studies Center, which serves as a reference library, a classroom, and a large reception room for hosting cultural events, speakers and a variety of programs.

SPRING 2018: Participants will meet with an instructor from the Program of German and Scandinavian Studies regularly for a weekly conversation/cultural events.

FALL 2018/SPRING 2019:
Participants will meet for a specially-designed, two credit course, which allows students of a variety of proficiency levels to practice and improve their conversational skills while learning about German culture, history, and politics, in a dynamic, small, relaxed, and student-centered classroom setting.

In addition, the class offers a variety of opportunities, both on and off campus, to participate in German cultural events: German film screenings; television news via satellite transmission and discussion of current events in German-speaking countries; cooking and enjoying German food (Schnitzel, Stollen, Pfannkuchen, etc); German holidays and celebrations like Reformationstag, Ostern, Nikolaus, Tag der deutschen Einheit and Karneval; the program-sponsored Kaffeepause; and preparation for study abroad. Students actively shape their learning experience by providing input on topics and activities.

Both German majors and non-majors from a variety of disciplines participate in the Thatcher House German Program. It has provided a variety of opportunities for students planning to study abroad as well as for returning students.
