Critical Support of People Power and Social Change

Monday, September 18, 4–6 p.m.
MARGARET CERULLO
Professor of Sociology and Feminist Studies, Hampshire College
From below and to the Left: Zapatista Autonomy and Resistance without End

Wednesday, October 4, 4–6 p.m.
LISA BROOKS
Associate Professor of English and American Studies, Amherst College
Native New England: Resistance, Reclamation, Revitalization

Wednesday, October 18, 3–5 p.m.
AMILCAR SHABAZZ
Professor of History and Africana Studies in the W.E.B. Du Bois Department of Afro-American Studies, UMass Amherst
Assata Shakur as the Soul of Black Resistance

Wednesday, November 1, 4–6 p.m.
LOGBONA OLUKONEE
Afro Cuban Historian and Activist; PhD Student, Universidad de Ciencias y Artes de Chiapas, Chiapas, Mexico
Resistance Is a Bridge between Activisms: Blackness and Queerness in Cuba and Chiapas

Monday, December 4, 4–6 p.m.
JOHN HIGGINSON
Professor of History, UMass Amherst
Why Revolutions?

FOR MORE INFORMATION
413-545-0394
resist@umass.edu
umass.edu/resistancestudies/events

All Lectures are located in the Integrated Science Building (ISB), Room 145
Refreshments will be served
Open to All