

University of Massachusetts Amherst
 Social and Behavioral Sciences Advising Center
 128 Thompson Hall
 413.577.1057 (phone); 413.545.3460 (fax)
 sbsadvising@sbs.umass.edu

Global Education Option Declaration Form

All students with a declared major in Anthropology, Communication, Economics, Journalism, Legal Studies, Political Science, Psychology B.A., Sociology or STPEC must complete the SBS Global Education Requirement. Please see the Social and Behavioral Sciences Undergraduate Advising and Requirements Handbook for descriptive information.

Name _____ Date _____

Major _____ Expected Grad Date _____

Local Address _____ Phone _____

SPIRE ID Number _____ Email _____

Global Education Requirement for the B.A. Choose one only

Note: All options contain a foreign language component.

Option 1: Foreign Language Option

(15 credits in one foreign language.)

- a. Foreign Language Option

Option 2: Regional Studies Option

(15 credits with a minimum of 6 credits in one foreign language with remaining credits in an area of regional study.)

- b. African Studies
- c. Asian Studies
- d. Latin American Studies
- e. Middle Eastern Studies
- f. Northern European Studies
- g. Eastern European Studies
- h. Southern European Studies

Options 3 and 4 can be declared only with the permission and signature of the Global Education Advisor in the SBS Advising Center, 128 Thompson Hall. If you wish to select either of these options, you must make an appointment with the Global Education Advisor. Note contact information above.

Option 3: Individualized Option

(15 credits with a minimum of 6 credits in one foreign language.)

- i. Individualized Option

Option 4: Certificate Option

(Depending on the certificate program, this option may require more than 15 credits.)

Be sure to discuss requirements for this option with your Certificate Program Advisor.

- j. African Studies Certificate
- k. International Relations Certificate
- l. Latin American Studies Certificate
- m. Asian Studies Certificate
- n. Modern European Studies Certificate

Global Education Advisor Signature
 (Required for Option 3)