

MASSACHUSETTS BANKERS ASSOCIATION INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The 2011 Financial Literacy Internship Education Program Deadline: Monday, November 15, 2010

The Massachusetts Bankers Association (MBA), representing all 190 banks doing business in Massachusetts is pleased to partner with the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences (SBS) for the 5th year in offering a paid internship with potential academic credit* during the Spring 2011 semester. MBA is looking for 4 students who will work with campus and MBA representatives to learn about financial literacy and design and deliver programs that will help inform their campus peers.

Students selected for this internship will:

- Develop workshops and events on campus that focus on helping your UMass peers to learn financial literacy and understand credit scores and responsible credit usage
- Work with the Office of the Vice-Chancellor for Student Affairs to introduce campus-wide financial education programs and resources
- Work approximately 40-50 hours during the spring semester and get paid $500
- Make valuable connections in the Massachusetts banking industry
- Gain great experience for future careers in banking, finance and communications
- Use and develop skills in public speaking, event planning, conducting workshops, and executing marketing plans
