The Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan is a low-interest, credit based loan program, that enables parents of dependent undergraduate students to borrow directly from the Federal Government to help pay for the student's educational expenses. A parent can borrow up to the cost of attendance minus other financial aid received. Before applying for a Parent PLUS Loan you must file the 2023-2024 Student FAFSA

Interest Rate, Fees and Credit Requirements:

- The interest rate is currently fixed at 8.05%, with an origination fee of 4.228%, deducted from the loan before disbursement.
 * Interest rate and origination fee are subject to change.
- The parent borrower is required to pass a credit check.
- If credit is approved, the borrower must complete a Loan Agreement for PLUS Loan (MPN) at studentaid.gov, which is valid for 10 years and for all future approved PLUS loans for the same borrower.
- If credit is denied, the loan can be approved with an Endorser, or student can receive a limited amount of additional unsubsidized loan funds.

Note: Loan Agreement (MPN) for loans approved with an Endorser are only valid for that single loan.

- The Parent PLUS loans offer a variety of repayment options:
 - The Standard Repayment Plan allows repayment of your loans in 10 years with a fixed monthly payment.
 - The Graduated Repayment Plan allows you to start with lower monthly payments at first, and then gradually increases your payments until your loan is fully repaid in ten years.
 - The Extended Repayment Plan allows you to repay your loan over a period not to exceed 25 years. There are eligibility requirements for the Extended Repayment Plan.
