Nutrition Department LinkedIn Quiz

1. Which of the following is false about “connecting” on LinkedIn?
   a. People you are connected to have access to your email address.
   b. Using the “People You May Know” page is a good way to find connections.
   c. Accepting or adding connections that you do not know at all is the main point of LinkedIn.
   d. To ask a potential connection to join a network you should send a direct invitation.

2. What is the best way to connect with someone on LinkedIn?
   a. Use the LinkedIn basic message.
   b. Send a polite, personalized message
   c. Send a group email and allow all recipients to see each other’s names.
   d. Send a personalized message including all questions you have for the person.

3. What are the important elements in a connection request? (Choose all correct options).
   a. Formal and polite message
   b. Remind recipient how you met
   c. Message should be minimum three paragraphs in length
   d. Tell them why you are interesting in connecting

4. Define “introduction” on LinkedIn:
   a. Directly message a person you want to connect with to introduce yourself
   b. Find a mutual connection who is able to introduce you to person you want to connect with
   c. Find the outside information of person you want to connect with, and call or email.
   d. B and C

5. How would you ask for an introduction on LinkedIn?
   a. Re-send message if person does not respond within two business days
   b. Briefly introduce yourself and explain reason for connecting
   c. Leave subject line of message blank
   d. Ask the recipient about potential job opportunities in first message.