Resources on Campus
By Paloma Suarez
Scholarships

- Undergraduate Programs - Scholarships:
  - Health and Nutrition Diversity Scholarships (HANDS)

- Scholarships for Seniors:
  - Virginia Beal Scholarship
  - Helen Mitchell Scholarship
    - Academic performance, potential of contribution to the profession as well as financial need are taken into account in making the decision.
  - Financial Aid New students should consult grant and scholarship information provided
Academic Advising

• Deciding Students

  - Undergraduate Advising (UA)
    • Students can get assistance from academic deans and advising staff with choosing a major, making a transition between majors, developing an academic plan, and advancing towards graduation in a timely manner.

• Students with Declared Majors
  - All students with declared majors are assigned an academic advisor and academic dean within their school or college.
Community Service Learning

• The Community Engagement Program (CEP) integrates academic learning and community engagement to foster leadership development and promote a more just society.

• Location: Commonwealth Honors College 504 Goodell
Learning Commons

- The UMass Amherst Learning Commons is located on the Lower Level of the W.E.B. Du Bois library.
  - Academic Advising
  - Study Abroad Advising
  - Learning & Writing Support
  - Library Services
  - Technology Services
Libraries

• W.E.B. Du Bois library

• Nutrition Library
Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction

- Learning Resource Center (LRC)
  - Tutors and Supplemental Instruction Leaders are model students trained to assist their peers in achieving academic success.
  - Location: the 10th floor of the W.E.B. Du Bois Library.
Career Services

• If you’re wondering...
• Where to begin, looking for an internship, or starting your job.

• Career Services will guide you through the process of career development from your first questions to your last.

• Location: 511 Goodell Hall
Multicultural Programs and Services

- Academic support, cultural enrichment, student development as well as support for institutional diversity
  Whether you're looking for peer mentoring, social connection, exposure to national student leadership conferences, help navigating offices of the Bursar, Registrar or Financial Aid.

- Location: Wilder Hall
IMPORTANT

• Please read our nutrition blog!

  - We constantly update with new material that could be helpful.
Questions?

Thanks so much!