A Selection of School of Public Health and Health Sciences
Master of Public Health in Public Health Practice (MPH-PHP) Capstone Projects

- A Review of HPV and Cervical Cancer: Disease, Screening, and Vaccination
- ACA: Implementation Plan for Physicians and Provider Education in Expanding Services to Disabled Populations
- An Approach to Weight Recidivism Post-Bariatric Surgery
- Civic Engagement Among blood Donors: A Research Study of Volunteer Blood Donors
- Comparing Four Social Insurance Programs Versus US System of Health Insurance
- Cryptococcosis
- Developmentally Disabled Institutionalized Patients and Access to Dental Care
- Disproportionate Impact of AIDS/HIV on African-American Women in the US
- Egg Inspections…Is the USDA Enforcing Just Surveillance?
- Emergency Evacuation Plan for a Large, Urban Hospital
- Globalization and Medicine
- Health Care Workers and the Development of Vaccine Policy
- High Point-Drug and Alcoholism Treatment Facilities
- Long-Term Weight Loss Strategies Among Latino Populations
- Medicaid Policy: Managed Care, Mental Health, & the Disabled
- Medication Errors Related to Hospital Discharge; Contributing Factors and Approaches for Prevention
- Mental Illness and Hispanic Populations: Access and Use of Mental Health System
- Non-Governmental Organizations' (NGO’S) Efforts in AIDS/HIV Alleviation: An Analysis of Sub-Saharan African Countries
- Perinatal Dental Care
- Plan for Addressing Rising Obesity Rates in Poor US Populations
- Practical Strategies to Eradicate Healthcare-Associated Infections (HIA’s) in Hospital Settings: To Promote Quality of Care and Enhance Patient Outcomes
- Sugar-Sweetened Beverage Taxes: Making the Healthy Choice the Easy Choice

If you are interested in a copy of one of these capstone projects for review, please contact Program Advisor Lori Peterson.