

SOCIAL THOUGHT AND POLITICAL ECONOMY PROGRAM

SELF-STUDY 2005

OVERVIEW

Prepared for Provost Charlena Seymour

Introduction STPEC's mission	Page 1
History STPEC's development and transformation from its founding by Professor Robert Paul Wolff in 1973 to the present	Page 2
Description of Current Program
Curriculum STPEC's major requirements and rationale for them	Page 8
Staff STPEC's director, "borrowed" University and Five College instructors, program coordinator, graduate student instructors and advisors, undergraduate office staff	Page 17
Governance AQAD Advisory Committee, undergraduates' role in STPEC decision-making	Page 24
Budget Cost of teaching assistantships and "borrowed" University and Five College faculty	Page 28
Outreach STPEC connections on and off campus	Page 30
Students Statistics on total number of students, breakdowns by in- and out-of state, gender, ALANA identification, study abroad, Latin honors, University accomplishments, social engagement	Page 31
Alumni/ae Graduate and law schools attended, professions chosen	Page 35
Community-Building Intakes, new student meetings, STPEC logo, newsletter, e-mail list, alumni/ae career forum, graduation ceremony, STPEC CON, alum reunions, annual community potluck	Page 37
STPEC's Limitations Lack of staff, inadequacies in alumni/ae relations, fund-raising, recruiting, advising, curriculum	Page 41
Future Challenges	Page 44

More substantial structural ties to CSBS, reconceiving directorship after Sara Lennox's retirement, professional staff advisor, rotating faculty appointments 1/8 time in STPEC, new advisory board, new forms of governance

Conclusion

Page 51