

Making Connections

Jobs, Internships and Social Change

featuring Afro-Am, Labor Center, STPEC
and Women's Studies Alums

Thursday, April 2, 2009 4:00-6:00 p.m. Cape Cod Lounge

UMass Amherst grads from the W.E.B. Du Bois Department of Afro-American Studies, the Labor Center, STPEC (Social Thought and Political Economy) and Women's Studies return to campus to meet students and offer internships and career information. Organizations include:

Come meet organizers, lawyers, teachers, researchers, librarians, professors, mediators, publishers, activists and more.

Come for the yummy food and stay for the career connections! Open to all.

Partial List of Organizations Represented:

- ▶ 1199 SEIU United Healthcare Workers East
- ▶ American Federation of Teachers
- ▶ Committee of Interns and Residents (CIR)
- ▶ Department of Economics, UMass Amherst
- ▶ Edward Elgar Publishing, Inc.
- ▶ Family Co-Mediation
- ▶ Legal Services for the Elderly
- ▶ Local 34, Federation of University Employees (FUE)
- ▶ Girls Incorporated of Holyoke, Holyoke, MA
- ▶ The History Project: Documenting LGBTQ Boston
- ▶ Massachusetts Chapter of the National Organization for Women
- ▶ Massachusetts Jobs with Justice
- ▶ Massachusetts Nurses Association (MNA)
- ▶ Office of Jobs and Community Services
- ▶ Planned Parenthood of the Southern Finger Lakes
- ▶ Saint Michael's College
- ▶ Sociology Department, UMass Amherst
- ▶ Student Bridges Program, UMass Amherst
- ▶ W.E.B. Du Bois Library, UMass Amherst

Sponsored by:

511 Goodell Building

For information contact the co-sponsors:

The Labor Center, www.umass.edu/lrrc/, 545-4875

STPEC/Social Thought and Political Economy Program, www.umass.edu/stpec, 545-0043

W.E.B. Dubois Department of Afro-American Studies, www.umass.edu/afroam, 545-2751

Women's Studies Program, www.umass.edu/wost, 545-1922